OFFICE OF PUBLICATION—Corner

Austin and Vale Sts., Jefferson, Texas.

Entered at the Post-Office at Jefferson, Texas, as second-class mail matter.

Copies of the JEFFERSON IMPRECATE, in wrapper ready for mailing, can always be had at the office by single copies or the dozen.

This paper is mailed regularly to its subscribers until a definite order to discontinue is received and all arrears are paid in full.

The peach trees are blooming. Another freeze would surely nip them in the bud.

With pure food, filtered water and unsophisticated physic the United States may now be euphonic.

McCall's Magazine, the queen of fashion, is out for March, and as usual, is full of interesting things for the ladies.

Every one is cussing John Rockefeller, yet there is not a man who would not take his cash and the cussing also and chance the indigestion.

The creosoting works will be constructed with an eye to large developments. This will bring something else, and so it goes. Let the motto of "keep a pushing" be strictly followed.

No effort is being made to get a large wire factory here, also one of the plow and farming implement manufactory in the South. Plenty of land can be had for these plants, and the best iron.

Why do the men here with money sit around when they can put their cash in a box factory and make money ready as rapidly as the Standard Oil Co. You can surely find some one to operate it.

Every one is watching the progress of the test well at Karnack. Should it come in an oil gusher, then this section of the State is stricken in the swim. Capital will flow in here from every direction. The prospectors have strong indications or they would not make the test.

Don't hesitate to be yourself. You are just as much of an individual as is the person whom you are trying to imitate. Within you are all the possibilities of man, awaiting the word of command that will awaken them into expression. Don't hesitate to step out from the ranks and claim the right to be yourself.—The Segnoqram.

Keep your eye on Northeast Texas. It is to have the largest iron industry in the southwest. It will have the only water point in the State away from the Gulf. It may yet develop into an oil producing section, and is in easy reach of a gas field, which will be of the greatest benefit and assistance in developing the various interests awaiting development.

W. K. Vanderbilt was roughly handled by a crowd of excited Italians because of his automobile injuring a small boy. Mr. Vanderbilt drew his gun, but was disarmed before the slaughter began. Either he was playing a big game of bluff or he can not handle a gun like a Texas cowboy. Evidently in this instance discretion was the better part of valor. Had that gun gone off and any one killed, the undertaker would have taken charge of the remains of Mr. Vanderbilt. Plenty of sights to see in this country; stay at home and keep out of trouble. It is a bad habit, that of carrying a gun prominent men should not set the example.

We run after leaders, teachers, and regard a thing as of undoubted truth and value, simply because some one else has seen fit to utter it in public, with an air of authority, or because some one else has written it and has laid it before us in cold authoritative type. "I saw it in print, and it must be so, although I have not so considered it myself," is rank nonsense. In the name of truth, have we not thinkers of our own, haven't we brains and mind to use on our own account? Some of us act as if our brains were mere mush instead of thinking machines, capable of turning a fine finished product.—The Segnoqram.

The Governor has issued his proclamation for special session of the twenty-ninth Legislature to convene on March 26th. He submits but one subject, the curing of the election law as follows:

"To provide for definitely determining the votes which candidates for party nominations for State and District offices shall receive in State and district political conventions, based upon the results of the primary elections held in the different counties of the State or of the district, as the case may be."

A bill has been introduced in congress by Representative Lloyd which that private fortunes shall not be permitted to exceed ten millions of dollars. It is not likely that this bill could pass the "millionaire's club" known as the Senate.

From the way the dry dock, Dewey, is washing about and becoming water logged in the Atlantic it is probable that it will be a wet dock by the time it is docked at its destination.

Iowa proposes to make a criminal offense to set off fire crackers on the Fourth of July. The next step forward will be to prohibit the delivering of Washington's Birthday speeches.

Watch out for "Bell Wether Bill," which will appear next week. It fits like the paper on the wall. So don't fail to read and profit by it. No, don't forget it.

One of the best fashion magazines is The New Idea. Get the March number, which is out, and you will be convinced.

Alfred H. Belo, president of A. H. Belo & Co., died in Dallas on Tuesday.

THE WEATHER, ETC.

FOR THE MONTH OF FEB. 1906.

Summary of Daily Observations.

TEMPERATURE:

Mean maximum temperature 59.9°. Mean minimum temperature 36.3°. Mean temperature of the month 48.1°. Highest temperature 71° on 25th. Lowest temperature 19° on 8th. Greatest daily range, 35° on 22nd. Least daily range 8° on 6th.

The mean temperature of the month was about 2 of a degree above the average for the last 15 years. There was no excessively cold weather, such as we frequently have in this month—the lowest degree being plus 19°, and only 10 days 32° or lower.

PRECIPITATION.

There was rain, more or less, on 9 days, but with .01 inch or more there were only 6 days giving a total precipitation of 2.69 inches. Greatest in 24 hours 1.19 inches, 13th.

WINDS AND OTHER STORMS.

The prevailing winds were easterly to northerly. There were high west winds on the 20th and 26th. A sleet storm 5th, and thunderstorm with light hail 23rd. The amount of the sleet and hail is included in the precipitation.

CHARACTER OF DAYS.

There were 12 "clear" days; 8 "partly cloudy" days, and 8 "cloudy" days. Included within the 28 days were only 10 frosty mornings, but many mornings in which the smoke was very dense and settled low.

Taking the month as a whole, it was an unusually pleasant February.

Respectfully submitted by

Yours truly,

JOHN M. SMITH,

Co-operative Observer U. S. Weather Bureau.

DIES FROM FRIGHT.

Young Man Accused of Murdering His Father Expires on Train.

Reanoke, Va., Feb. 28.—D. L. Traynham was arrested Monday night charged with the murder of his father, J. B. Traynham, on the night of Feb. 18. The feeling here was very bitter against young Traynham, and it was thought advisable to take him to Lynchburg for safety. Just as the train was entering the latter city Traynham rose from his seat and with an exclamation fell back in the arms of Officer Overstreet. When he was taken from the train he was found to be dead.

The autopsy on the body showed he died from fright. No poison was found in the stomach. Young Traynham leaves a widow, to whom a child was born Tuesday.

STUCK IN SNOW.

Passengers Feasted on Basket of Eggs and Two Loaves.

St. Louis, Feb. 28.—A trolley car containing twenty-four passengers was stuck in a snow drift from Monday noon until early Tuesday, half way between St. Louis and Clayton. Two loaves of bread and a basket of eggs comprised all the refreshments the marooned passengers had. The passenger who owned the bread and eggs shared with his fellow sufferers. By nightfall some of the more courageous floundered two miles through the snow to Clayton. The others told stories through the night, and were rescued by a snow plow.

DASTARDLY DEED.

Shoot Down and Kill an Aged Man and Wound His Sons.

New Orleans, Feb. 28.—Two daring negro highwaymen walked into the isolated store of Frank Botto, an old Italian, at Gross Point, a small town on the Texas and Pacific railroad, shot him down, killing him instantly, and fatally wounded his two sons, 14 and 13 years old. Mrs. Botto was shot at, but escaped and gave the alarm. While she was gone they robbed the place and escaped. Two armed negroes were arrested at Port Allen.

Lumber Firm Fails.

Louisville, Feb. 28.—Perkins & Pettibone, wholesale lumber dealers, filed a petition in bankruptcy. Liabilities are $267,322 and assets $29,265. Mr. Pettibone, it is understood, made an individual assignment at Laurel, Miss., a few days ago.

Was a Legal Holiday.

New Orleans, Feb. 28.—Mardi Gras was a legal holiday; no markets.

BRIEFLY NOTED.

Ex-Mayor Fisher of Galveston is dead.

War against South McAlester cider joints is being made.

W. G. Simmons of Paris, Tex., was killed in a runaway.

Will Marshall, a negro, at Hugo, I. T., was shot through a window and seriously hurt.

John Scharbauer at Fort Worth, bought 45,080 acres in Pecos county, at $1.25 per acre.

Hiram Mahaffey was held up by footpads at Abilene, Tex., and his throat cut. His jugular vein was barely missed.

Thomas Young, convicted of criminally assaulting an orphan girl, was sentenced at Georgetown, Tex., to be hanged March 30.

FRIENDS TELL FRIENDS— "NOTHING LIKE PE-RU-NA."

PE-RU-NA'S POPULARITY IS IN NO SMALL MEASURE DUE TO THE GENEROUS PRAISE GIVEN IT BY GRATEFUL PEOPLE.

Tells Every One About Pe-Ru-NA.

Mrs. R. T. Pennessy, Bound Brook, N. J., writes: "I have taken Peruna and find it a very good medicine. After I took one bottle of Peruna, I was cured of my cold. I cannot help telling every one I know about Peruna and asking them to try it. I would like every one to know of the good Peruna does."

Recommended Pe-Ru-NA to Many.

Mrs. J. M. Horton, 126 S. 15th street, Birmingham, Ala., writes: "I had a severe attack of la grippe. After taking the third bottle of Peruna I was fully restored to health. I have recommended it to many."

A Neighbor Advised Pe-Ru-NA.

Mrs. John Haynes, 107 E. Main St., Columbus, Ohio, writes: "For over two years I suffered with headaches and severe pains in my head, and all these two years my friends would say, 'Why don't you take Peruna?' 'Finally one of my neighbors just insisted on my taking it. I tried it and before I had taken one-fourth of a bottle my headaches were gone. I am never without Peruna. I advise every one to take Peruna."

Friend Advised Use of Pe-Ru-NA.

Mr. E. W. Staley, 312 Fillmore St., Nashville, Tenn., writes: "I was down for three months with pneumonia and had gotten very weak. A friend advised me to try Peruna, which I did, and soon found it was the thing I needed. When I finished the third bottle, I found I weighed more than I ever did in my life."

Spreading the Good News.

Prof. J. Iverson, dealer in musical merchandise, box 313, Cumberland, Md., writes: "It is now five months since my wife began taking Peruna and from the first day improvement has been going on noticeably. She is now in good health. We never tire of making this fact known to our many friends."

A Friend Had Used Pe-Ru-NA.

Mr. Henry I. Goodwin, portrait artist, 36 Govestreet, E. Boston, Mass., writes: "For three years I have been suffering from a general rundown condition of the system. I tried many remedies. A friend of mine advised me to take Peruna, as it had benefited him. After taking two bottles I felt betted. Now I am in the best of health."

MOB AFTER NEGRO.

One Thousand Men and Boys Cause Startling Scene.

Springfield, O., Feb. 28.—M. W. Davis, a brakeman, was fatally shot by two negroes, Preston Ladd and Edward Dean, Tuesday night. Ladd was also wounded and taken to a hospital, being in a ward adjacent to his victim. Dean was hurried away to Dayton. A mob of 1,000 men and boys was quickly formed.

The mob entered Kempler's saloon and quickly looted it. Kempler and his wife fled, leaving their three little children asleep in a room over the saloon. The saloon was riddled with bullets and stones, and it was only by the hardest efforts of the police and firemen that a way was forced through the mob and the children rescued. After the pillaging of the saloon drunkenness was a feature of the riot and at 11 o'clock members of the mob broke through a cordon of police and set fire to a house in "The Jungles," which was quickly burned down.

DUE TO NERVOUSNESS.

P. T. Hughes Throws Furniture About, Upsets Lamp and Causes Fire.

St. Louis, Feb. 28.—While laboring under intense mental excitement or nervousness, P. T. Hughes, aged 26, from Lincoln, Neb., began throwing furniture around in his room on the third floor of the Comfort hotel, finally overturning a lighted lamp and starting a fire. Hughes and J. A. Courtney, 55 years of age, superintendent of construction at the Missouri Pacific hospital, who also occupied a third floor room, jumped from windows to escape the flames and were picked up with fractured skulls, and are in a critical condition.

R. B. Dyckman, clerk of the hotel, was seriously burned fighting the fire.

R. B. Dobson, a deaf mute, and Chas. Reinz, a cook, ran through a blazing hallway to escape, and suffered burns.

Hughes had been taken from his burning room when he broke away from his rescuers and rushed back into the flames and a moment later jumped from a window.

There were 125 other guests in the hotel, but none were injured.

Wanted at Marshall.

Shreveport, Feb. 28.—Charles Coleman, the murderer of Margaret Lear, is wanted at Marshall, Tex., to answer a charge of having criminally assaulted a negro.

N. A. R. D.

For what do these magic letters stand? You doubtless have seen them in the public print, and possibly their meaning has been misrepresented or obscured.

They stand for a high standard of professional work on the part of the druggist in the interest of the people's health and welfare.

They stand for legislation honestly intended to prevent the adulteration and misbranding of foodstuffs and substances used in the preparation of medicines.

They stand for an efficient organization of the drug trade of the United States, on such a basis as will insure the eradication of trade and professional abuses, which work an injury to the pharmacist and consumers of medicinal products.

They stand for legitimate merchandising and professionalism, against fakery in the former field and quackery in the latter; for a square deal—open and above-board treatment—for every man, whether he be patient, physician, or pharmacist.

They stand for fair compensation in payment for conscientious, skillful and painstaking work on the part of the pharmacist—no more, no less.

They stand for the truth about everybody, and against misrepresentation of every sort aimed at frier foe.

The owners of this store are R. D. men and are proud of them. They stand shoulder to shoulder with 30,000 other pharmacists to form the grandest army of retail in the world, marching under the banner, "To Live and Let Live."

They have proven that right might.
